

ADVANCED ARTS PROGRAM RECOMMENDATION & PERMISSION FORM

The CPS Advanced Arts Program (AAP) provides CPS high school juniors and seniors Honors, Advanced Placement, or Dual College Credit coursework in the performing, visual, and culinary arts. Students study on our campus every day of school from 2:45-4:45 p.m. Each class is taught by a highly qualified CPS teacher and a professional teaching artist. CTA passes and course materials are supplied by the program. The Advanced Arts Program is managed by the CPS Department of Arts Education.
